MODULE 2: CHURCH LEADERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

Code: MI105

Date: Sept 7th-10th, 14th-17th 2026

Day: Monday to Thursday

Time: 7.00pm to 10.15pm

Lecturer: Dr. Philip Huan

Dr. Philip Huan

TERM 3

The course provides students with a broad overview of the theory and practice of administration in the local church by exploring the biblical concepts of leadership and administration. The course will address goal setting, team building, delegation, human relationships, budgeting, working with committees, personnel management, church operations, and the training of leaders.

Reverend Dr Philip Huan has been a pastor since 1997, providing oversight in various ministries such as worship, cell groups, and family ministries. He served as a pastor overseeing the development of leaders at RiverLife Church by establishing systems for multiple levels of leadership. Dr Philip also founded ChurchLife Resources (www.churchlife-resources.org), which provides consultancy to pastoral teams, church boards, and ministry teams. Since 2004, he has intentionally integrated mentoring into his ministry, mentoring Senior and Associate Pastors, Board Chairpersons, Youth and Young Adult Pastors, as well as leaders in the marketplace. Passionate about people development, Philip has taught leadership modules as an adjunct lecturer at Singapore Bible College, Trinity Theological College, TCA College, Tung Ling Bible School, and Covenant Vision School of Ministry. He is currently a pastor at Kingdom Community Church, a church plant inaugurated in December 2011. Philip holds a Master of Divinity from Trinity Theological College and a Doctor of Ministry from Asbury Theological Seminary (USA). He is the author of Enduring Church Growth - Issues on Discipleship, Leadership and Followership and Navigating Pull-back Effects - Leading Growing Churches Amidst Cultural Resistance. He is married to Jenni, and they have two children: Abigayle and Keith.
